We engaged with a group of boys outside of the park they were very relaxed and engaged in conversation with us, we broached the idea of having pop up events over the summer and they were very keen on the idea. They mention they would like to get involved in DJ workshops ,graffiti workshops and I mentioned sports and they were also keen on this. They also talked about using the Pool table in the Millennium Hall as someone had mentioned it to them. We also talked to 2 younger girls in the park, and they were also happy to hear that we are around and possibly might join in over the summer.

I cleaned a small amount of rubbish up from the park. We walked the village and went to the Beach, and there were young people there, but they were in the sea, and all was well. We didn't see the Police while we were down.
